

Biography

Elisa Boughton

Elisa Boughton is the Branch Manager International and Domestic Engagement at the Australian Maritime Safety Authority. She manages three teams responsible for multilateral engagement - focusing on the International Maritime Organization (IMO) and International Organization for Marine Aids to Navigation (IALA), technical cooperation and domestic stakeholder engagement. Elisa has 15 years' experience working on international maritime issues.

Prior to joining AMSA in 2013, Elisa worked at the Department of Infrastructure and Transport (2005-2010) in the Maritime Branch and the Department of the Environment (2010-2013) working on chemical policy.

Elisa is an admitted solicitor with a BA/LLB from the University of Sydney and a LLM (Maritime Law) from the University of London.