- IALA Alumni

Spanish group

In the region, for the region

WHY

- to start with Spanish L1 AtoN training, IALA publications need to be translated
- to create a robust pool of experts/lecturers among countries
- to be able to coordinate activities in the region
- to encourage cooperation among countries
- for IALA to reach out to members and non-members beyond Europe
- to create a Spanish Alumni group
- to set up online distance learning in Spanish

ADVANTAGES FOR COUNTRIES

- being supportive to IALA Goals
- having more international importance in IALA, “Gold” member
- having a positive international maritime image
- being able to benefit to the regional community
- having access to more Spanish publication and training
- being able to work remoted for IALA technical committees

HOW

- coordinated by IALA WWA
- Moodle platform for communication
- decide on criteria to be part of translation/lecturing group
- decide the terms of the groups

PROCEDURE

- establish the Moodle platform
- decide on participant countries and representatives
- define expertise fields and allocate lecturers
- conduct gap analysis in expertise fields
- connect lecturer with English speaking expert from technical committee, buddy system

PROCEDURE

- list existing Spanish publications and review these first
- priorities what needs translation, L1 and L2 training
- divide the work, preferably a future lecturer translating or peer reviewing
- developing countries conducting reviews of translations
- organize IALA events and courses, e.g. L1 training, Risk Seminar

FUTURE

- IALA Spanish top-experts pool
- Spanish L1 AtoN Manager course with international experts lecturing
- Spanish Risk Seminar conducted in the region, by the region
- Spanish WWA courses beyond L1
- Local experts connected with local Alumni
