	Convention art. 6.4
3.4 Rules of Procedure The following Rules of Procedure shall apply to the conduct of the business of the General Assembly: The Role of the Chair	Convention art. 6.6	New letter (h) is to reflect that calling of GA by one third of the Contracting States is an action independent from Council.

(a) The President, or in his/her absence, the Vice President, shall be the Chair of the General Assembly;

(b) The Chair will open and close the meeting, direct discussions, ensure the observance of the procedures in the IALA Convention and these General Regulations, accord the right to speak, put questions to the vote and announce decisions;

(c) The Chair will have control over the proceedings and may rule on points of order and shall have the power to propose adjournment or closure of debates or adjournment or suspension of the meeting.

Conduct of meetings

(d) No person may address the General Assembly without having previously obtained the permission of the Chair. Subject to rules e), f), j) and l) below, the Chair shall call upon speakers in the order in which they signify their desire to speak. The Chair may call a speaker to order if the remarks of such speaker are not relevant to the subject under discussion;

(e) The Chair of a committee or his or her representative, or the delegate of a subsidiary body may be accorded precedence for the purpose of explaining the conclusion arrived at by that committee or subsidiary body;

(f) During the discussion of any matter, a delegate may rise to a point of order and the point of order shall immediately be decided by the Chair in accordance with the Rules of Procedure. A delegate may appeal against the ruling of the Chair. The appeal shall immediately be put to the vote and the Chair's ruling shall stand unless overruled by the majority of the designated representatives present and voting. A delegate rising to a point of order may not speak on the substance of the matter under discussion;

(g) The General Assembly may, on the proposal of the Chair, limit the time to be allowed to each speaker on any particular subject under discussion. When the debate is limited and a delegate has spoken for the allotted time, the Chair shall call such delegate to order without delay;

Designated in accordance with article 3.2(c) and IALA Convention article 5.3(b).

(h) During the course of a debate, the Chair may announce the list of speakers and, with the consent of the General Assembly, declare the list closed. The Chair may, however, accord the right of reply to any delegate if a speech delivered after the closure of the list makes this desirable;

(i) During the discussion of any matter, a delegate may move the adjournment of the debate on the question under discussion. In addition to the proposer of the motion, two delegates may speak in favour of, and two against, the motion, after which the motion shall immediately be put to the vote. The Chair may limit the time to be allowed to speakers under this rule;

(j) A delegate may, at any time, move the closure of the debate on the question under discussion, whether or not any other representative has signified his wish to speak. Permission to speak on the closure of the debate shall be accorded only to two speakers opposing the closure, after which the motion shall be immediately put to the vote. If the General Assembly is in favour of the closure, the Chair shall declare the closure of the debate. The Chair may limit the time to be allowed to speakers under this rule;

(k) During the discussion of any matter, a delegate may move the suspension or the adjournment of the meeting. Such motions shall not be debated, but shall be immediately put to the vote. The Chair may limit the time to be allowed to the speaker moving the suspension or adjournment;

(l) Subject to rule f) above, the following motions shall have precedence in the following order over all the other proposals or motions before the meeting:

- i. to suspend the meeting;
- ii. to adjourn the meeting;
- iii. to adjourn the debate on the question under discussion; and,
- iv. for the closure of the debate on the question under discussion;

(m) Subject to rule f) above, any motion calling for a decision on the competence of the General Assembly to discuss any matter or to adopt a proposal or an amendment submitted to it shall be put to the vote before the matter is discussed or a vote is taken on the proposal or amendment in question;

(n) A motion may be withdrawn by its proposer at any time before voting on it has commenced, provided that the motion has not been amended or that an amendment to it is not under discussion. A motion which has thus been withdrawn may be reintroduced by any delegate;

(o) When a proposal has been adopted or rejected it may not be reconsidered unless the General Assembly, by a two-thirds majority of the designated representatives present and voting, so decides. Permission to speak on a motion to reconsider shall be accorded only to the mover and one other supporter and to two speakers opposing the motion, after which it shall be put immediately to the vote.

Voting during meetings

(p) The General Assembly will normally vote by show of hands overseen by scrutineers. However, any Contracting Party may request a roll-call vote, which shall be taken in English alphabetical order of the name of Contracting Parties present, commencing with the Contracting Party whose name is drawn by lot by the Chair. The vote of each Contracting Party in any roll-call shall be noted in the meeting record;

(q) A representative of one Contracting Party shall not vote on behalf of another Contracting Party.

Decision making and reporting

(r) Where the General Assembly is requested to make a decision, that request shall be put to the meeting in the form of a General Assembly Resolution. Each Resolution should include an implementation date, if relevant, and for convenience, the Chair may aggregate Resolutions for approval and reporting purposes;

(s) The Secretariat shall arrange for the substance of all discussions of the General Assembly to be recorded in a general summary of the work of the meeting. These minutes shall be distributed to all Contracting Parties and member delegations, which may submit their proposed corrections in writing to the Chair. Any disagreement on the proposed corrections shall be decided by the Chair after consultation with the members concerned;

(t) The minutes will be adopted by the General Assembly in session, or if necessary, by correspondence;

(u) Contracting Parties and members who made statements during debate may request that such statement be attached to the minutes;

(v) The minutes, together with all relevant documents, shall be made available to the Contracting Parties and members within two weeks after their approval by the General Assembly.

(w) Audio recordings of General Assembly sessions may be made and shall be retained by the Secretariat for record purposes.

3.5 Election of Council

The election of Councillors shall be conducted as follows:

(a) The Secretary-General will invite Contracting Parties to indicate their nomination for Council, according to Article 7 of the Convention six months before the opening of the General Assembly. Nominations will be received by the Secretariat for the following four months. Nominations should include:

- i. the name of the Contracting Party being nominated;
- ii. a statement, in the form approved by Council and provided by the Secretariat, outlining the credentials of the Contracting Party for a position on Council; and
- iii. a statement, in the form approved by Council and provided by the Secretariat, outlining the credentials of the person to represent the Contracting Party;

(b) Councillors should, as far as possible, be drawn from different parts of the world with a view to achieving as widespread a representation as possible.

(c) The Contracting Party having the non-elected councillor in accordance with Article 7 of the IALA Convention cannot be nominated for election.

Convention art. 7.3

Text on geographic distribution taken from current IALA Constitution art. 8.1 was not considered appropriate in draft IALA Convention and CoS2 advised to consider it for GR. For discussion.

(d) Two months before the opening of the General Assembly all nominations shall be collated and circulated to all Contracting Parties by the Secretariat. After this date no nominations shall be accepted unless there are exceptional circumstances, in which case the nomination should be approved by the General Assembly for inclusion in the election; (e) A vote to elect Councillors from amongst those nominated will be conducted by secret ballot; (f) The Secretariat shall produce a ballot form for nominees for Council and each designated representative shall have one vote for each vacant seat on the Council; (g) The Chair shall appoint two scrutineers from amongst the Contracting Parties who have not been nominated for Council, who shall proceed to scrutinise the votes cast and the counting of votes by the Secretariat; (h) If two or more candidates obtain the same number for the last seat or seats to be filled, there shall be a further ballot from among these candidates only. Should the votes again be divided equally, the Chair shall draw by ballot the name of the candidate to be eliminated in the subsequent ballot; (i) When voting and counting are completed the Chair shall confirm the election and invite the newly elected Council to take up their duties; (j) The term of the Council is from confirmation of its election until the election of a new Council at the following ordinary General Assembly; (k) Should a Contracting Party elected to Council advise at some time during the term of that Council, being more than two years from the next General Assembly, that they are unable to continue to serve on the Council, the Secretary-General may conduct a by-election to fill the vacancy. The Secretary-General shall invite nominations from all eligible Contracting Parties, conduct the vote electronically and rules g) - j) above will apply. The term of office of any Contracting Party so elected will be the same as that of the Contracting Party being replaced; (l) Contracting Parties are to advise the Secretary-General in cases where the person representing the Contracting Party at Council changes.	Convention art. 5.3	CoS2 advised to mention in the GR that the non-elected Councillor cannot also be an elected Councillor.

Article 4

The Council

4.1 Functions of the Council

- (a) The Council, in fulfilling its obligation to administer IALA will carry out the functions assigned to it by Article 7.6 of the IALA Convention;
- (b) In the period between General Assemblies, should no appropriate provision be made in the IALA Convention or these General Regulations, the Council shall make any administrative or technical decision which may be necessary, unless such decision falls exclusively within the jurisdiction of the General Assembly under the Convention. Any such decision must be referred to the next General Assembly for confirmation;
- (c) The Council shall be guided by the overall policy and IALA Strategic Vision as decided by the General Assembly;
- (d) If the Council considers that any question or issue should be referred to Contracting Parties, it shall send a circular to each Contracting Party requesting them to notify the Secretariat of their opinion on the matter. The Council shall then decide the matter.

4.2 Convening the Council

- (a) The Council will be convened, ordinarily twice a year by notice in writing by any of the following:
- i. the President or Vice President;
  - ii. the Secretary-General; or,
  - iii. at the request of two Councillors;
- (b) The date of the meeting of Council in ordinary meeting will be determined by decision of the Council at its previous meeting. The location will be the IALA Headquarters unless alternate arrangements are agreed, or if the meeting is to be held electronically;
- (c) The date of an extraordinary meeting of the Council will be not less than ten calendar days from the date of notification, and the location will be the IALA

Headquarters unless agreed by the Secretary-General and President, or if the meeting is to be held electronically;

(d) The quorum for a Council meeting is [two thirds] of Councillors, at least one of which must be the President or Vice President, who will chair the meeting and one member of the Finance and Audit Committee;

(e) Any Contracting Party may be present at Council meetings;

(f) Council may also determine that a representative of any Committee or other body established by it or of another organization may be present at a Council meeting.

Convention art. 1.3

Consider if any member can be present at a Council meeting.

4.3 Organisation of Council meetings

(a) Council meetings are to be prepared and organised by the Secretary-General using the resources of the Secretariat;

(b) The business of the Council shall be conducted in the working language of the Organization, English, including all input and output documents;

(c) Two months before a scheduled Council meeting the Secretariat shall invite Councillors, Contracting Parties and members to submit papers addressing matters that they wish to discuss at Council. These will be received by the Secretariat for the next two weeks;

(d) Six weeks before the opening of Council submitted papers together with those prepared by the Secretariat shall be made available to all Councillors, Contracting Parties and members who have requested them, and they shall be invited to forward their comments to the Secretariat within two weeks;

(e) Four weeks before Council the Secretariat shall make all papers and the provisional agenda for the meeting available to Councillors, Contracting Parties and members;

(f) The provisional agenda for an ordinary meeting of Council shall normally include:

- i. Approval of the Agenda;

- ii. Report of the President/Secretary-General;
- iii. Report of the Finance and Audit Committee;
- iv. Committee Reports;
- v. Any other business; and
- vi. Date and time of next meeting;

(g) The provisional agenda for an extraordinary meeting of Council shall normally include consideration of the question(s) for which the meeting was convened.

4.4 Rules of Procedure for Council meetings

The following Rules of Procedure shall apply to the conduct of the business of the Council:

The Role of the Chair

(a) The President, or in his/her absence, the Vice President, shall be the Chair of the Council;

(b) The Chair will open and close the meeting, direct discussions, ensure the observance of the procedures in the IALA Convention and the General Regulations, accord the right to speak, put questions to the vote and announce decisions;

(c) The Chair will have control over the proceedings and may rule on points of order and shall have the power to propose adjournment or closure of debates or adjournment or suspension of the meeting.

Conduct of meetings

(d) No person may address the Council without having previously obtained the permission of the Chair. Subject to rules e), h), i) and j) below, the Chair shall call upon speakers in the order in which they signify their desire to speak. The Chair may call a speaker to order if the remarks of such speaker are not relevant to the subject under discussion;

(e) During the discussion of any matter, a Councillor may rise to a point of order and the point of order shall immediately be decided by the Chair in accordance with the Rules of Procedure. A Councillor may appeal against the ruling of the Chair. The appeal shall immediately be put to the vote and the Chair's ruling shall stand unless overruled by the majority of the Council present and voting. A Councillor rising to a point of order may not speak on the substance of the matter under discussion;

(f) The Council may, on the proposal of the Chair, limit the time to be allowed to each speaker on any particular subject under discussion. When the debate is limited and a Councillor has spoken for the allotted time, the Chair shall call the Councillor to order without delay;

(g) During the course of a debate, the Chair may announce the list of speakers and, with the consent of the Council, declare the list closed. The Chair may, however, accord the right of reply to any Councillor if a speech delivered after the closure of the list makes this desirable;

(h) During the discussion of any matter, a Councillor may move the adjournment of the debate on the question under discussion. In addition to the proposer of the motion, two Councillors may speak in favour of, and two against, the motion, after which the motion shall immediately be put to the vote. The Chair may limit the time to be allowed to speakers under this rule;

(i) A Councillor may, at any time, move the closure of the debate on the question under discussion, whether or not any other Councillor has signified his wish to speak. Permission to speak on the closure of the debate shall be accorded only to two speakers opposing the closure, after which the motion shall be immediately put to the vote. If the Council is in favour of the closure, the Chair shall declare the closure of the debate. The Chair may limit the time to be allowed to speakers under this rule;

(j) During the discussion of any matter, a Councillor may move the suspension or the adjournment of the meeting. Such motions shall not be debated, but shall be immediately put to the vote. The Chair may limit the time to be allowed to the speaker moving the suspension or adjournment;

(k) Subject to rule e) above, the following motions shall have precedence in the following order over all the other proposals or motions before the meeting:

- i. to suspend the meeting;
- ii. to adjourn the meeting;
- iii. to adjourn the debate on the question under discussion; and

iv. for the closure of the debate on the question under discussion;

(l) Subject to rule e) above, any motion calling for a decision on the competence of the Council to discuss any matter or to adopt a proposal submitted to it shall be put to the vote before the matter is discussed or a vote is taken on the proposal in question;

(m) A motion may be withdrawn by its proposer at any time before voting on it has commenced, provided that the motion has not been amended or that an amendment to it is not under discussion. A motion which has thus been withdrawn may be reintroduced by any Councillor;

(n) When a proposal has been adopted or rejected it may not be reconsidered unless the Council, by a two-thirds majority of the Councillors present and voting, so decides. Permission to speak on a motion to reconsider shall be accorded only to the mover and one other supporter and to two speakers opposing the motion, after which it shall be put immediately to the vote.

Voting

(p) In ordinary meetings the Council shall vote by show of hands and otherwise in accordance with Article 5.3 of the IALA Convention;

(q) The Chair may decide to call an out of session postal or electronic vote by Council. Postal or electronic votes will be determined by simple majority of votes cast, with nil returns being counted as votes in favour of the proposal, unless otherwise notified when the vote is called.

Decision making and reporting

(r) Where the Council is requested to make a decision, that request may be put to the meeting in the form of a proposed Council Resolution. Each Resolution should include an action date, if relevant, and for convenience, the Chair may aggregate Resolutions for approval and reporting purposes;

(s) The Secretary-General shall arrange for the substance of all discussions of the Council to be recorded in a general summary of the work of the meeting. The minutes shall be distributed to all Councillors present at the meeting, who may submit their proposed corrections in writing to the Chair. Any disagreement on the proposed corrections shall be decided by the Chair after consultation with the Councillor(s) concerned;

(t) The minutes will be approved by the Council in meeting, or, if necessary, by correspondence. The agreed minutes, including the text of all Resolutions, will be made available to Councillors, Contracting Parties and members;

(u) Documents relevant to the implementation of decisions shall be distributed to Councillors, Contracting Parties and members as relevant.

4.5 Election of the President and Vice President of IALA

(a) The Council shall, upon its election or as necessary, from among its Councillors elect the President and Vice President of IALA;

(b) The election will be by secret ballot, which shall be conducted by the Secretary-General;

(c) All Councillors will be eligible for election upon indication of their willingness to stand for election;

(d) There shall be two ballots, the first to elect the President and the second to elect the Vice President;

(e) Each Councillor is entitled to cast one vote in each ballot;

(f) Election will be majority of votes cast, the counting of which will be done by the Secretary-General in view of the Council;

(g) The President and the Vice President shall hold office for one term between General Assemblies unless resigning earlier. They shall not be eligible for immediate reelection and shall not hold office for more than two terms;

(h) The President and Vice President hold these positions on a personal basis. Should either cease to be the designated representative of their Contracting Party, the position will fall vacant from date of them so ceasing;

(b) Nominations for these positions may be made by Contracting Parties or the Secretary-General. When a vacancy arises, the Secretariat will inform Contracting Parties of the vacancy and seek nominations in an open and timely manner, including providing advice to Contracting Parties of the process for selection of the successful candidate. The Secretariat will inform Council of all nominations and the Council will determine the successful candidate;

(c) Chairs and Vice Chairs of Working Groups should normally be provided by Contracting Parties. However, where appropriate they may be drawn from members or sister organizations.

6.3 Rules of Procedure

[include rules of procedure for committees]

(a) The Rules of Procedure for IALA committees shall be developed by the Secretary-General for approval by Council and the General Assembly and shall apply to the convening of, and conduct of business of, committees and other bodies established by the Council if so directed by Council;

(b) The Rules of Procedure for IALA committees shall be made available to all Contracting Parties and members;

(c) Council may determine that a committee or other body may establish its own rules of procedure;

(d) Standards developed by committees require the endorsement of Council before being submitted to the General Assembly for approval;

(e) Recommendations, Guidelines, Manuals and submissions produced by Committees require the approval of Council before publication.

Article 7

The Secretary-General and the Secretariat

7.1 Appointment of the Secretary-General

Convention art. 9

(a) In accordance with the IALA Convention Article 7.6 (h) Council will appoint a Secretary-General to act as legal representative and Chief Executive of IALA for a term of four years and may reappoint the Secretary-General for one additional term not exceeding four years;

(b) Council, upon advice of a forthcoming vacancy in the position of Secretary-General, will empower a panel of Councillors to act as Selection Panel to fill that vacancy;

(c) The Selection Panel shall consist of the President, the Vice President, the Treasurer and two other Councillors, which shall be assisted by a suitably qualified member of the staff of the Secretariat appointed by the incumbent Secretary-General;

(d) The Selection Panel will:

- i. review the existing position description and salary by comparison with like positions in other organizations;
- ii. prepare an updated position description, vacancy notice, selection criteria, candidate assessment matrix and interview process;
- iii. consult with the Finance and Audit Committee to establish a remuneration and benefits package for the position;
- iv. publish the vacancy notice on the IALA website and in other media as appropriate;
- v. determine and implement interview arrangements;
- vi. individually evaluate applications against the selection criteria using the candidate assessment matrix;
- vii. collectively identify candidates for interview based on completion of a combined candidate assessment matrix;
- viii. conduct interviews;
- ix. collectively assess and rank each candidate against the selection criteria based on application and interview performance;
- x. undertake consultation with referees for short-listed candidates;
- xi. enter without prejudice negotiations with the preferred candidate, inter alia in relation to the position description, employment conditions and remuneration and benefits package; and

Article 8 Conferences and Symposiums

8.1 Definition

(a) IALA Conference is a meeting that has, as its principle objective, the interchange of views and the exchange of technical and informative updates on all types of marine aids to navigation.

(b) IALA Symposium is a meeting to consider and discuss a set of contributions on specific subjects relating to marine aids to navigation.

8.2 Attendance

(a) Conferences shall be open to:

- i. All IALA Contracting Parties and members;<sup>2</sup>
- ii. Other international organizations and associations, Aids to Navigation Authorities, VTS Authorities and official bodies as approved by the Council; and,<sup>2</sup>
- iii. International organizations and associations designated by the Council.

(b) Symposiums shall be open to:

International organisation, company or individual working in the field or having an interest associated with the subject addressed by the Symposium, upon registration.

IALA Guideline for the Preparation of a Conference or Symposium

IALA Guideline for the Preparation of a Conference or Symposium

This revision is made in reference to the definition in the Guideline, with an emphasis on the technical nature of the Conference.

Please note, there is no clear definition on how often a Conference or Symposium should be organized, except in Article 3.1(b). Considering the technical nature of the Conference, is it better to separate General Assembly and the Conference ?

"Upon registration" added

8.3 Exhibitions (a) At Conferences An exhibition of aids to navigation equipment will be organised during each Conference period. Only those Industrial members who have paid the equivalent of the contributions for the two years immediately prior to the year of the Conference, plus the year of the Conference, will have the right to exhibit. (b) At Symposiums An exhibition of aids to navigation equipment will be organised during each Symposium. The exhibition will be open to any entity operating in the aids to navigation field, upon registration. 8.4 Guidelines for the Preparation of a Conference or Symposium (a) The Secretariat shall develop, for approval by Council, Guidelines for the Preparation of a Conference or Symposium. The Guidelines shall assist the Secretariat and the host in the planning and preparation for convening, and conduct, Conferences and Symposiums; (b) The Guidelines shall be made available to Contracting Parties and members considering hosting a conference or symposium.		Consider whether a reference to the Guidelines should be incorporated herein. Because the Guideline used in IALA as NGO may not be transplanted directly to IALA as IGO, if not clearly stipulated anywhere, like in the Convention or the General Regulations. Or suppose the new IALA will establish a set of new working procedures and guidelines on the basis of the old ones.
Article 9 Amendments to the General Regulations 9.1 These General Regulations may be amended by the General Assembly. 9.2 The Council and any Contracting Party to the IALA Convention may propose an amendment to these General Regulations, in accordance with Article 3.

9.3 Decisions of the General Assembly relating to matters covered by these General Regulations shall be incorporated therein.

Article 10

Unpaid Contributions and Fees

10.1 In the case of unpaid contributions or fees the Secretariat, in accordance with the relevant Secretariat Procedure, shall apply the following arrangements:

(a) For Contracting Parties:

- i. charge a 3% per annum interest rate on contributions remaining unpaid on 31st July of the financial year;
- ii. in the event of paragraph i. request payment by 1st October of the financial year;
If no payment is received by 1st November the Secretary-General shall contact the Contracting Party, requesting payment and inviting the Contracting Party to discuss any difficulties that would justify IALA considering a payment plan;
- iii if the contribution remains unpaid and an agreement has not been reached with the Contracting Party regarding payment suspend membership rights and benefits with effect from twenty-four months after the due date for payment, in accordance with the Convention.

(b) For Associate and Affiliate members, IALA shall:

- i. charge a 3% per annum interest rate on fees remaining unpaid on 1st May of the financial year;
- ii. on approval by Council, suspend membership rights in accordance with the table at Annex A of the General Regulations if no payment is received by 1st July of the financial year;
- iii. advise Council, at its second annual session, of unpaid fees; and
- iv. on approval by Council, after notification, terminate membership if fees remain unpaid after membership rights have been suspended for six months and the member has not agreed a payment schedule.

10.2 Outstanding contributions and fees and interest due will be shown in tables annexed to the financial statements. Provision for bad debts arising from non-payment of contributions and fees shall be made in the annual balance sheet.
Article 11 Dedicated Funds 11.1 Dedicated funds may be established by the Secretary-General for the execution of specific programmes or projects, provided that the purposes are consistent with the aim and functions of the Organization. The purpose and limits of each dedicated fund shall be clearly reported to Council. 11.2 The financial resources needed to establish a dedicated fund may come from grants, donations, bequests, gifts or other sources as approved by the Secretary-General. The precise terms and conditions governing such income shall be formalized. 11.3 Any monies remaining unused when a programme or project is terminated shall be used as stipulated, and if not so stipulated, for the general purposes of IALA unless the Secretary-General determines otherwise. 11.4 A specific budget shall be prepared for each fund for approval of Council and the final result for the year for each dedicated fund shall be shown separately in the financial statements. 11.5 Any dedicated funds shall be audited in accordance with the relevant provisions in Article 12.
Article 12 External Audit 12.1 An external Auditor shall be appointed by the FAC and carry out such work as required by applicable accounting practices.	IHO FR art. 20. FaC appoints the Auditor.

12.2 The appointment is for a period of six years and may be renewed. 12.3 The external Auditor may make observations with respect to the efficiency of the financial procedures, the accounting system, internal financial controls and, in general, the administration and financial management of the Organization. 12.4 In addition to the above, the Council may request the external Auditor to perform specific investigations and issue separate reports on the results. 12.5 Draft final accounts will be submitted by the external Auditor to the first Council meeting each year; 12.6 Council may close the accounts after examination of particular Contracting Party and member situations and after decision to authorize the writing-off of arrears of contributions and fees or other bad debts as required; 12.7 The audit report shall be made available to Contracting Parties and members via the annual report and the website.
Article 13 Dissolution In the event of dissolution of the Organization, the balance of the accounts shall be divided amongst the Contracting Parties [and members] which are still parties to the Convention [or members of the organization] on the day when the latter ceases to have effect. Any credit balance shall be divided amongst these Contracting Parties [and members] in proportion to the total amount of their contribution. Any debit balance shall be divided amongst these Contracting Parties [and members] in proportion to their last annual contribution.	IHO FR art.21.	Should members be mentioned in this art.?
