LIAISON NOTE

Disclaimer for the website and the publications

1 INTRODUCTION

The PAP sent a liaison note to LAP for the drafting of a disclaimer for the website and the publications.

2 DISCUSSION

LAP 24 has developed a disclaimer for the webpage:

IALA strives to make the information on this website as accurate as possible but expressly disclaims liability for its content and its use.

In case of doubt or any questions that might occur, please contact the IALA Secretariat.

In addition, a general disclaimer for the IALA documents was developed:

IALA is an international association that deals with Marine Aids to Navigation. The association aims to provide information and support to its members and the maritime community through its standards, recommendations, guidelines and other documents as accurately as possible. However, the planning, implementation and operation of Marine Aids to Navigation remains the sole responsibility of the respective national members, authorities, administrations or other entities according to their respective national law including the decision to use IALA's standards, recommendations, guidelines and other documents. IALA shall in no event be held responsible for any claim, damages or other liability, whether in an action of contract, tort or otherwise, arising from, or out of or in connection with the above-mentioned documents, the use of or other dealings with them.

3 ACTION REQUESTED

PAP is invited to note this information and the Committees are invited to consider if in specific documents a general disclaimer is not sufficient and if a more specific disclaimer is needed. If necessary, LAP can assist with the development of such a specific disclaimer.
