

IALA COUNCIL 63rd session

13-16 December 2016
IALA Headquarters

15 – MEMBERSHIP

15.1 – Applications for Membership

Note by the Secretariat

1. APPLICATIONS PROVISIONALLY ACCEPTED

Since the last Council meeting, the Secretariat received the following applications for IALA Membership, which have been provisionally accepted by the Secretary-General:

National Members:

- None

Industrial Members:

- Senro Limited, United Kingdom: Application received on 27th June 2016. This company is part of IMIS Global Limited [IMIS] and has developed MariWeb, a solution to comply with all current AIS Standards and IALA Recommendations including A-124 and A-126 in order to increase the efficiency of operating ports, fisheries, marinas, canals and waterways. It also implements open communication standards and protocols ensuring that integration, expansion and protection of existing legacy systems are optimised.
- Beacon Co, Egypt: Application received on 27th June 2016. This company supplies navigational aids & IT Systems in Egypt, and is also specialized in installation and maintenance of products (lighthouses, beacons, buoys, marine lanterns, DGPS systems) for all ports belonging to Egyptian Authority for Maritime Safety.
- Full Oceans, France: Application received on 13th July 2016. This company is specialized in marine marking buoys. It also designs, manufactures in France and sells a wide range of navigational aid equipment worldwide online.
- MN-Nav Solution Pte; Ltd, Singapore: Application received on 11th July, 2016. This company was recently developed by Adam Hay, an eminent ENG Committee member. It is specialized in aids to navigation design, installation, maintenance, management and audits as well as compliance inspections, training, coastal surveillance and AIS.
- Vesper Marine, New Zealand: Application received on 20th August. This company designs and manufactures dedicated AIS equipment including transponder, receiver and display solutions available as well as the necessary accessories such as antennas and splitters to give a complete AIS solution.
- IXBLUE, France: Application received on 07th September 2016. This company provides innovative solutions and services for navigation, positioning and imaging, applicable for offshore construction and dredging, geophysics and hydrography, ocean science, maritime vessels.

- IHM P/S, Denmark: Application received on 13th October 2016. This organization provides naval and maritime communication systems as well as radio systems for maritime sector and especially coasts and ports.
- Ecobarrier Manufacturing LLC, United Arab Emirates: Application received on 29th September 2016. This company is a distributor of a range marine protection and demarcation barriers designed by Ecocoast. It also provides a range of services from supply, installation, maintenance and removal of such equipment.

Associate Members

- Comoros Port Authority, Comoros: Application received on 30th August 2016, further to a technical mission of the IALA World Wide Academy. Created in 2001, this organization is in charge of the coordination of the maritime traffic and the safety of navigation in Comoros
- Marine Transport Institute, Democratic People's Republic of Korea: Application received on 18th September 2016. Support was received from the Democratic People's Republic of Korea permanent delegation at the UNESCO which testifies that the activity of this organization is in accordance with Art 5.1 of the IALA Constitution.

2. APPLICATIONS AWAITING ACCEPTANCE

Associate Members

- ENC Center of National Taiwan Ocean University, Taiwan: Application received on 29th October 2016. Established in 1953, as a principal Taiwan Maritime Technology College, this Organization is now a full fledge University composed of six colleges: Maritime Science and Management, Life Sciences, Ocean Science and Resource, Engineering, Electrical Engineering and Computer Science, Humanities and Social Sciences.
- Matlev Consulting, Morocco: Application received on 1st December 2016. This company is specialized in consulting and engineering services for ports and maritime industries. It provides high level experts for the definition, the implementation and the follow up assistance of projects management.

Industrial Members

- China Head Aerospace Technology Co, Peoples' Republic of China: Application received on 17th October 2016. This is an international trading company specialized in domestic marketing of space-related products and technology consultancy and service. Support is expected from China MSA.
- CML Microcircuits, United Kingdom: Application received on 5th December 2016. This company supplies semiconductor based products into the marine industry. Their concern, being a member is to contribute and participate in the very important marine communications are which is IALA.
- Chaohu Qunli Anchor Chain Co Ltd, Peoples' Republic of China: Application received on 08th December 2016. This company established in 1980s manufactures buoy, and anchor chains and provide all the necessary service for navigation mark equipment. Their concern, becoming a member of IALA is to provide a better service and products with higher quality conforming the international standards. Support is expected from the National Member.

Confirm acceptance of the members listed in 1. Above.

Formally accept the applications for membership listed in 2.above.