

FINAL ACT OF THE DIPLOMATIC CONFERENCE ON THE CONVENTION ON THE INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION FOR MARINE AIDS TO NAVIGATION

1. The International Association of Marine Aids to Navigation and Lighthouse Authorities (IALA), in its Resolution of 27 May 2014 in A Coruña, Spain, believing that international intergovernmental organization status would best facilitate IALA's aims into the future, determined that IALA should strive to achieve such status as soon as possible by supporting the development of an international convention.
2. The French Republic hosted the First Preparatory Diplomatic Conference in Paris on 18-19 April 2017, where the preparation of a consolidated text of a draft Convention on the International Organization for Marine Aids to Navigation began.
3. The Second Preparatory Diplomatic Conference took place in Marrakesh on 7-8 February 2018 hosted by the Kingdom of Morocco, followed by the Third Preparatory Diplomatic Conference in Istanbul on 12-14 March 2019 hosted by the Republic of Turkey, where the preparation of the consolidated text of a draft Convention continued.
4. The Third Preparatory Diplomatic Conference agreed that the prepared text of a draft Convention on the International Organization for Marine Aids to Navigation was sufficiently advanced for consideration at a Diplomatic Conference.
5. The Diplomatic Conference on the Convention on the International Organization for Marine Aids to Navigation was held in Kuala Lumpur on 25-28 February 2020, following the kind invitation of the Government of Malaysia.
